

Weekly Word From St. Patrick School

MARCH 18, 2011

WEEKLY MESSAGE

Hopefully everyone is starting to recover from the loss of one hour of sleep. Each year, I find out how much of a difference one hour can make. I still believe that the rest of my family is still struggling with the change of time.

However, there is a silver lining in daylight savings time. It is a signal that spring is finally arriving. It signals a time of rebirth and renewal. I look outside of the doors of school and notice the growth of flowers.

I welcome the change of weather. I welcome the transition of below zero weather to temperatures of 60s and 70s. Everybody enjoy break next week.

SPRING GALA

Please mark April 16 on your calendar for our Spring Gala. It will be a great social gathering with food, entertainment, raffle, and a live/silent auction. The new school apparel will also be revealed. I attached the flyer for the Gala and Pajama Party. You can purchase dinner tickets by detaching the bottom of the flyer and returning it with a check to school.

Also, please remember to hand in your raffle tickets. If you are not going to get your tickets sold, please make sure you return the tickets to school by March 31. If you sold your tickets, please return the ticket with the money.

BARNES & NOBLE DAY

Please remember that we have a Barnes & Noble day tomorrow March 19. We get a percentage of any sales if the buyer tells them that they are part of the St. Patrick book fair. If you can't make it to the store, there is an online option that will last a week after the in store option. I attached the flyer.

KINDERGARTEN ROUNDUP

We will be having kindergarten roundup on Thursday, April 21. If you have a child going into kindergarten, please bring your child that morning. If you know of other families with students going into kindergarten, please pass on the information. More details will come after spring break.

PRESCHOOL NIGHT

We will have a preschool informational meeting on the night of April 21 starting at 6:00. If you or someone you know has a child that will be in three and four year old preschool next year, please mark this date on your calendar.
